Gold runner alpine coaster tickets

Level Contributor 149 posts 33 reviews 16 useful votes at Breckenridge Adventure Park - Expensive! Three years ago we planned to spend the day at Breckenridge in a few weeks. There are 8 of us, and most of us wanted to ride the alpine coaster, some wanted to ride the Alpine slide. Now I'm seeing you have to buy an Adventure Pass. Ride the mountain coaster. I am shocked by the price. Are there discount tickets anywhere? I understand it's Breckenridge and they have to make their money, but I think the coaster is worth about $10 - maybe $15. Now we are considering going somewhere else. I hope the Breckenridge people read this and hopefully consider changing ticket options. We should all eat lunch and dinner at Breckenridge, and do some shopping. Now we could just do a kajaki on Lake Dillon or something, and our money won't go into Breckenridge. Thank you. Re: Breckenridge Adventure Park - Expensive! 3 years ago considering the high prices of our 10 half extended family group, we just sent three 20 somethings and the rest of us just had a historic cheap walking tour around the city and picked them up later lol. It's not as expensive as skiing, but quite pricey. I agree. Mountain biking is not cheap either, especially if you need to rent a bike too. To enjoy the natural cheap, stop at the Breckenridge Visitor Centre and ask for easy hikes you can do on your own in the area. Level Contributor 7557 posts 6 reviews 3 helpful 2. Re: Breckenridge Adventure Park - Expensive! 3 years ago the Alpine slide at Winter Park is $20 per ride. Glenwood Springs Adventure Park is $54 per pass similar to an $82 pass for Breck. That would be a cheaper alternative. There used to be one here at Golden that was over $15 for a trip to a group of us, but it was about 10 years ago. Sorry, it's not working out. I have no idea the price. Also, Keystone is friday afternoon Club aka FAC. Gondola is free, as are games and live music. For the purchase of food and beverages. Super fun for the family, you are here to pick up a free copy of Summit Daily. There is always some fun free event going on. Free concerts at the Dillon Amphitheater are very fun too I think you are on the right track with getting to the reservoir. One of my favorite things to do is to rent a pontoon boat for $155.00 for 2 hours of fun is a much better deal than one quick ride on a roller coaster. I couldn't tell if you meant to go somewhere other than Breck on the coaster or save Breck for the destination? You consider Frisco. Just a few miles away, but less crowded and less $$$$. The location is great, the staff were very friendly and helpful. Historical territory. Summit County is a great summer vacation. You don't need to break the bank at a wonderful time! 4. You don't have to buy Adventure Pass 3 years ago to ride the Golden Runners Coaster. You can buy one rides. The cost is $25. It doesn't matter what we think the coaster is worth. (And I don't think it's worth it. I prefer an Alpine slide.) Rather than complain on the forum that no one at Breckenridge Resort would ever see, why not call or email them and express your opinion? I'm going to DisneyWorld later this year, and the cost is horrible – but complaining about it in the forum isn't going to change anything. Level Contributor 16954 posts 65 reviews 63 useful 6. The location is great, the staff were very friendly and helpful. Bring your own food. 2 slices pizza, 2 drinks and fruit cup $40.00.Lift tickets/lessons for 8 2 days - 2000.00 Rental equipment between snowboards and skis - $700.00.I want to say thank you to Barry Comeau and Catherine and Dan who made it my teenage vacation. Paid for group lessons and felt that we got the benefit of almost private lessons. Super instructors. Very friendly people. Hepled us so many times. It would have given a higher rating, but the price is a little high in Breckenridge, CO., to take his pick between the 2600 ft Alpine Slide or the elevated Gold Runner Coaster.
